

WEBINAR LECTURERS

Konstantinos KARAVASILIS

Regional Loss Prevention
Director (Greece)
UK P&I Club

Kostas is a Greek Master Mariner with significant seagoing experience onboard Bulk Carriers and Cruise Ships.

Prior to joining Thomas Miller's Hellas office in December 2019 he worked as Claims Manager for a local hull insurer, garnering more than 10 years of experience within the marine insurance industry.

Kostas is certified by Lloyd's Register of Shipping as an ISM and ISPS Internal Auditor. He deals with Loss Prevention related matters and operational enquiries for local Members, and he also conducts crew seminars.

Thanassis POLYCHRONOPOULOS

Deputy Director of Marine
Environment Protection Department
EPE

Thanasis Th. Polychronopoulos (Oceanographer - Environmentalist, MSc) has over 17 years response experience to many pollution incidents as Operation Manager, Technical Manager, On Field Manager and Logistic Manager.

He has obtained IMO level 1 & 2 Seminar Courses and he is a main instructor on many seminars, antipollution drills and exercises (EPE OPRC Training Courses) that EPE has organized for shoreline industries and oil companies; He is also MED (Marine Equipment Directive) Responsible and REACH officer.

